Blessing of a Home at Epiphany
Leader: Peace be to this house.
All: And to all who live here.
Leader: Bless, O Lord, this household and family, and allow all of us who live in this home to find in it a shelter of peace and health.

Inspire each of us to develop our individual talents and to contribute wisdom and good works for the benefit of the whole family.
 Make our house a haven for us all, and a place of warmth and caring for all our friends who come to visit us.
 Enlighten us with the brilliance of your Epiphany star, so that, as we go into the world, we might clearly see our way to You and discover You in our work and play.
 This we ask to your glory and in the power of your kingship.
All: For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory now and forever, Amen.

Then, bless the house with the Sign of the Cross. After the blessing, the initials of the Magi (traditional names: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar) are written with chalk over the main door way of the house, like this: 20 + C + M + B + 15 (the + is a cross; the "15" stands for 2015)

The monogram of the name "Jesus". IHS (from Greek IHOUS), was widely promoted in the 15th century by John of Capistrano and Bernardine of Siena, although the use of the letters of the name of Jesus as an emblem can be traced to the 8th century.

Epiphany of the Lord

TRYING TO SHARE the details of an epiphany with another is fraught with complications. Most of us keep our personal experiences of the Holy to ourselves. Who would believe it or understand it? Ironically, epiphanies are made for sharing, even though they are impossible to communicate fully. This is certainly the case of today's extraordinary Gospel story for the solemnity of the Epiphany of our Lord Jesus Christ. Today the Church celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the Magi from the East: people of good will, open to God, ready to hear and follow God's call, ever-willing to follow a star wherever it might lead. Open and starry-eyed, they are naïve, guileless, easily taken in by self-serving priests and murderous kings. They are romantic, lovable figures, pursuing truth and searching for a deep, abiding joy that the world cannot give. The star we follow today to the manger speaks to the mind a heart of each of us. The experience of the Magi reminds us that all who make the strenuous journey to the truth will finally encounter it and be changed in the process. They can never go back to "business as usual" in life. When we meet Christ and see who he really is, we will never be the same—and only then can we hope to begin to share in his mission.

Rev. Thomas Rosica, CSB Toronto, ON

EPIPHANY

"The sight of the star filled them with joy, and going into the house they found the Child with Mary, His Mother, and falling to their knees, they paid Him homage. Then, opening their treasures, they offered Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. " Mt. 2:11-12 Almighty, all-loving God, You made known the incarnation of Your Word by the witness of a blazing star, at sight of which the Magi worshiped Your majesty and offered gifts. Grant that the star of Your justice may shine forever in our souls, and that we may find our treasure in offering You praise. Amen.

Divine Babe of Bethlehem, in this holy Christmas season, let your light shine upon all those who are suffering in the world. Look kindly on our relatives and friends in need of healing, especially Henry Arquette, Danny Bero, Debbie Bero, Lila Caldwell, Laurie Connors, Veronica Cook, Clyde Cree, Philip Francis, Dewey Garrow, Lorraine George, Betty Lamendola, Michael Smoke, Richard Taylor, Anne Terrance, Sandra Terrance, Chester Thompson, and Loris Thompson.

Lord Jesus, may your light shine on our way, as once it guided the steps of the Magi: That, we too may be led into your presence and worship you, the Child of Mary, the Word of the Father, the King of nations, the Savior of mankind; to whom be glory for ever. Amen

Jan. 3 The Most Holy Name of Jesus

Since the New Testament times, the name of Jesus has been honored. Paul writes that "at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father" (Philippians 2.10-11).

Thank you to Snye School for their generous donation of $268.28 during this Christmas Season. God Bless the teachers and pupils.
