THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

BAPTISM OF THE LORD THE INCARNATION DEMONSTRATES GOD'S complete and total love for humankind. By becoming one of us, Jesus demonstrates the humility necessary to be of service to all of humanity. He is the embodiment of the Servant of whom Isaiah sings in the first reading, someone who sacrifices himself for the sake of others in order to be a "covenant to the people". Jesus Baptism is just one example of this. When Jesus approaches John, John objects, because he is aware of his own subordinate status relative to Jesus. Moreover, John's baptism is for the forgiveness of sins, but since he is sinless, Jesus has no need of such a baptism. He submits, however, to provide an example of his willingness to give up his own position of importance, as well as to emphasize the means by which we are cleansed of sin. His submission is affirmed by the descent of the Holy Spirit, and by the message of the heavenly voice: "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." Every time we participate in the Eucharist we celebrate Jesus' life, reminding ourselves of what he has done for us through his baptism, his earthly ministry, his death, and his resurrection. We also receive spiritual nourishment through his body and blood, so that we are able to imitate him and be "a light to the nations".

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

The week of Prayer for Christian Unity

On the night before he died on the cross our salvation, Jesus offered a prayer for his disciples. "Father, the hour has come! Give glory to your Son that your Son may give glory to you. Inasmuch as you have given Him authority over all mankind. That He may bestow eternal life on those you gave me out of the world... I entrusted to them the message you entrusted to me, and they received it... For these I pray... I do not pray for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their word, that ALL MAY BE ONE, as you, Father are in me, and I in you. I pray that they may be one in us, that the world may believe that you sent me. I have given them the glory you gave me that they may be one, as we are one—living in them, you living in me that their unity may be complete. So shall the world know that you sent me and that you loved them as you loved me. The theme for the 2014 Week of Christian Unity is "Has Christ been Divided?" We join all believers in this year's prayer. We give you thanks, O Lord, for you bless your Church with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Help us to support one another, to be respectful of our differences, and to work for the unity of all those who throughout the world call upon Jesus as Lord. Help us by your grace to continue praying the prayer of your Son that we may be one, that we may draw ever closer together and recognize that our unity is that of yours, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

"And they brought to Him all the sick suffering from various diseases and He cured them." (Mat.4:24) Almighty and everlasting God, Physician who brings eternal healing to those who believe, hear us as we ask Your compassionate help for Your servants who are sick especially Wally Jacobs, Ida Thomas Gordon Caldwell, Ted Mitchell, Theresa Mitchell, Robert Thompson, Tommy Terrance, Sandra Terrance, Jessica Garrow, John Bigtree, Cecilia Cook, Josephine Peters Betty Swamp, and Robert Lazore. Console those in our nursing homes and hospitals. Bless all who are caregivers with your compassion and courage. Amen.
