Pray with the Bishops to End Abortion

On January 22, 2015, our nation marked the 42nd anniversary of Roe V. Wade, the Supreme Court decision that made abortion legal throughout the U.S. Since that tragic decision, more than 56 million children's lives have been lost to abortion, and many suffer that loss – often in silence.

 Loving God, I thank you for the gift of life you gave and continue to give to me and to all of us. Merciful God, I ask your pardon and forgiveness for my own failure and the failure of all people to respect and foster all forms of life in our universe. Gracious God, I pray that with your grace, I and all people will reverence, protect, and promote all life and that we will be especially sensitive to the life of the unborn, the abused, neglected, disabled, and the elderly. I pray, too, that all who make decisions about life in any form will do so with wisdom, love, and courage.

Living God, I praise and glorify you as Father, Source of all life, as Son, Savior of our lives, and as Spirit, Sanctifier of our lives. Amen.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

I WAS FORTUNATE in being able to travel to Galilee recently, visiting the locations that Jesus and his disciples must have walked along two thousand years ago. Looking across the massive body of water that is the Sea of Galilee, I saw some fishermen, waiting with their lines in the water. I could just imagine Simon, Andrew, James and John, nets in hand, fishing along these very shores. Fishermen play a significant role in the ministry of Jesus. Several are his disciples and he often uses fishing examples in his teachings, as he does in today's Gospel. What's striking, though, is Jesus' call to the fishermen. It's urgent enough for them to leave everything immediately – their livelihood and families – to follow Jesus. What could inspire such change, such loyalty to a stranger? Every day thousands of men and women hear a call to be priests, nuns, teachers, healers and more. They have described that call as so urgent and strong that they drop the lives they are leading to follow it. We may not all be called in this way, but each and every one of us is called by God. We are called to believe, to trust and to live lives that are examples of that belief. Through the disciples' example, we're reminded that having absolute faith in God, even to the point of leaving the life we know, will never be cause for regret. Saskia Sivananthan, Surrey, BC

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, who chose the apostles to make disciples of all nations, and who by baptism and confirmation have called us to build up your Church, we implore you to choose among us, your children, many priests and religious who will love you with their whole hearts and will gladly spend their lives making you known and loved by all. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SICK FOR THE WORLD DAY OF THE SICK

O Mary, Seat of Wisdom, intercede as our Mother for all the sick and for those who care for them. Grant that through our service of our suffering neighbors, and through the experience of suffering itself, we may receive and cultivate true wisdom of heart. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today, we commend to your loving care all of our parishioners, family, and friends who are suffering in any way – John Ransom, Anna Mae Besaw, Veronica Cook, Danny Bero, Laurie Bero Connors, Evangeline Laura Connors, Betty Lamendola, Eva Seymour, Anne Terrance, Sandra Terrance, Michael Smoke, Lila Caldwell, Dewey Garrow, Sandy Cook, and all who are undergoing dialysis, chemotherapy, or major surgery this week. Bless their caregivers with true wisdom of heart to be generous and strong in their charity toward the sick.

WORLD DAY OF THE SICK TO BE CELEBRATED ON FEBRUARY 11, 2015

Pope Francis has given us the theme for this year: "I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame." (Job 29:15). We must pray for "wisdom of the heart". Wisdom of heart means being with our brothers and sisters. Time spent with the sick is holy time. Our world forgets the special value of time spent at the bedside of the sick, since we are in such a rush – caught up in the frenzy of doing, or producing, we forget about giving ourselves freely, taking care of others. Charity takes time – time to care for the sick and time to visit them. Even when illness, loneliness and inability make it hard for us to reach out to others, the experience of suffering can become a privileged means of transmitting grace, and a source for gaining and growing in "wisdom of the heart." People immersed in the mystery of suffering and pain, when they accept these in faith, can themselves become living witnesses of a faith capable of embracing suffering, even without being able to understand its full meaning. (Message of Pope Francis)
