This Sundays Reflection

PEACE BE WITH YOU. When there is a crisis or a tragedy, we eagerly await the first words of those who've come through the trauma. Knowing their survival is exceptional, we hang on their every word. They are charged with so much meaning! With this kind of anticipation, we ask today; what were some of Jesus' first words as he emerged from his tomb? "Peace be with you," he announced – a message repeated again and again in the Gospels. What is this "peace" – a word that is time-worn in our day – that carries such an extraordinary meaning in today's Gospel? John's Gospel tells of a deep personal peace that comes when we are freed from fear and confusion. Jesus indicates this freedom as he asks doubting Thomas to feel his wounds, dissolving Thomas' fear and distrust by letting himself be touched so intimately. Here we witness a major point in today's story: Jesus does not merely suggest we come to peace; he takes us by the hand and initiates the way for us to do so. A friend doesn't merely cajole a fearful friend; they reach out and touch that person – in a real and peace-filled way. Jesus shows us the way, providing us with not only first words but also first actions – after emerging from the tomb. In this way, he instructs us to go and do the same. Jerome Herauf, Allentown, PA

PEACE PRAYER OF SAINT FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,
In pardoning that we are pardoned,
And in dying that we are born to eternal life.
