LET US PREPARE TO CELEBRATE
THE FEAST OF SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA
LILY OF THE MOHAWKS

Born at Auriesville, NY 1656
Baptized at Fonda, NY April 5, 1676
Died at Caughnawaga, Canada April 17, 1680
Declared Venerable by Pope Pius XII, January 3, 1943
Beatified by St. John Paul II, June 22, 1980
Canonized by Pope Benedict XVI, October 21, 2012

Help me, Saint Kateri, to imitate your wonderful Native American spirituality with its respect for all of creation, but most especially for those who have been created in the image and likeness of God. Help me to live your Native American insights like this one:
Whatever befalls the earth befalls the children of the earth. We do not weave the web of life. We are merely a strand in it.

Whatever we do to the web, we do to ourselves.
Help me, Saint Kateri to put into practice another of your Native American values, namely, kindness to strangers. Intercede for me that I will always show kindness to both strangers and the people I serve, keeping in mind another of your Native American sayings:
This we know: the earth does not belong to the people; people belong to the earth.
All things are connected. We are brothers and sisters.

Pray for me, Saint Kateri, that my faith will be reinforced so that I will be willing to suffer inconvenience just as you suffered for the Christian values of your new faith which God gave you through your mother and the zealous Blackrobes who worked among your people.
AMEN.

CARE OF OUR COMMON HOME

They will be presenting on Saturday, April 23rd, at SUNY Canton in Nevaldine Hall North, Room 102, from 10:00 am - Noon. Free and open to the public.

This event is sponsored by St. Mary's Parish and its Newman Ministry, Faith and Ecology Groups, and Sisters of St. Joseph Social Justice Committee. For more info contact Sr. Bethany Srbethssj@gmail.com

Jubilee Year of Mercy – April 10 – Third Sunday of Easter

How appropriate today's Gospel for this Jubilee Year of Mercy, both because of the "breakfast" Jesus provides ("a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread") and the number of fish in Peter's net ("one hundred fifty-three") (John 21:11-12). Of the fish, Saint Augustine suggests that the roasted fish is the suffering Christ. Saint Gregory the Great adds that Christ lowered himself to swim in the "water" of our humanity; to be caught in the "net" of our death; to be "roasted" in his Passion on the fire of suffering. Saint Jerome claims that "one hundred fifty-three" represents the full number of known species of fish, signifying that the Church's "net" has room for all our widely diverse humanity, securing our unity-in-diversity in the hands of Peter and his successors. Having received God's mercy as "the beating heart of the Gospel," may the Church – we – "pattern [our] behavior after the Son of God who went out to everyone without exception" (Misericordiae Vultus, 12). Peter Scagnelli, Copyright J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, intercede for all who are ill at home, in the hospitals, and in the nursing homes -- especially Cecilia Sylvester, Marie Casey, Michael Herne, Julia David, Kevin Phillips, Florabelle Anderson, Debbie Bero, Robert Sunday, Francis Cree, Sandra Terrance, Everett Lazore, Hilda Herne, Norman Tarbell, Clyde Cree, Chico Arquette, Larry Rourke, Larry Pyke, James and Esther Thompson, Laurie Connors, Sheila Oakes, Sheila Ransom, Mae Tarbell, Florence Benedict, Beatrice Cole, Charlotte Lazore, Marjorie Thompson, Hubert Jock, Jerry Thompson, Marjorie Lazore, and all others who need our prayers.

We pray for all those who have died, especially Margaret T. Jacobs, Lucille Tatro, Robert Black, and Katherine Sullivan. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. AMEN.

REJOICE! THE LORD IS TRULY RISEN.
ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!

APRIL 17: WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS. Prayer of Pope Francis:

Father of mercy, who gave your Son for our salvation and who strengthens us always with the gifts of your Spirit, grant us Christian communities which are alive, fervent and joyous, which are fonts of fraternal life, and which nurture in the young the desire to consecrate themselves to you and to the work of evangelization. Sustain these communities in their commitment to offer appropriate vocational catechesis and ways of proceeding towards each one's particular consecration. Grant the wisdom needed for vocational discernment, so that in all things the greatness of your merciful love may shine forth. May Mary, Mother and guide of Jesus, intercede for each Christian community, so that, made fruitful by the Holy Spirit; it may be a source of true vocations for the service of the holy People of God.
