	The Divine Mercy Devotion The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us — all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC: A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world. B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us. C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive. This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread. To follow daily the Divine Mercy chaplet, tune in to EWTN daily by 3 PM

Sunday Reflection

TODAY'S GOSPEL MIGHT make us feel unsettled – and not only because, like Thomas, we sometimes struggle with doubt in our relationship with God. We may also feel uncomfortable with the invitation Jesus extends to us via Thomas, to touch the wounds of one another and to bring healing to those wounds. Thomas is preoccupied with his confusion of emotions. His reaction is born out of his confusion of emotions. His reaction to the news of the resurrection is born out of his feelings of grief, fear hurt and anger. He challenges Jesus with a threat that, without seeing and touching the wounds, he will not believe. Jesus accepts the challenge, guiding Thomas to feel the wounds of the crucifixion. Thomas is overcome with joy. John vividly portrays Jesus' wounds: Thomas' hand can fit into Jesus' side; his finger can fit into the wounds on Jesus' hands. The fleshiness of this image is a gauntlet that gently, but insistently, challenges us to become bearers of Christ's peace. John invites us to respond to Jesus, who is calling us out of our hurts and fears to what the second reading calls "a new birth into a living hope." Today, let us celebrate the hope that resolves doubt and heals wounds. Let us celebrate with the same joy that made Thomas proclaim, "My Lord and my God!" Let us be, like the first disciples, a living hope to the world.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

On Divine Mercy Sunday we pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy: " For the sake of His sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world." We offer special prayers for healing for Sandra Terrance, Anne Terrance, Mary Jackson, Eva Seymour, Theresa Mitchell, Hawi Oakes, William Francis, Betty Swamp, Bertha Horne, Julie Kozsan, and Mike Thomas all in our nursing homes and hospitals.

We commend to God's mercy all our recently deceased, especially Pauline Boots, Lawrence Herne, Ted Mitchell, Pete Mitchell, Tommy Bear Terrance, Solomon Cook, Christine Chubb Fadden, Therese Sullivan, and Allen Montgomery (son-in-law of Cecilia Sylvester).
