This Sundays Reflection

I GIVE YOU A NEW COMMANDMENT. In Jerusalem Jews are forbidden to walk on part of Temple Mount to prevent possible desecration of the Holy of Holies, the place where the tablets of the Ten Commandments given to Moses were kept. So holy were those tablets received from the hand of God that only the high priest could see them, and then only once a year, on Yom Kippur. Today, we are reminded of a promised New Jerusalem – a city even more sacred than the old, a city where peace and harmony reign, a city where all distinctions, all barriers have been removed. This city is the whole world, a world founded on a new law: a law broader and yet simpler than the old. That simplicity is based on a single word: love. The law Jesus gave us tells us simply to love one another as he has loved us. Jesus said we would be recognized by the way in which we treated one another. It does sound simple; but in practice we are being asked to love as perfectly as God loves. We are being asked to put aside our petty differences, jealousies, dislikes and hatreds. We are being asked simply to love, to strive for a world of peace and harmony. Are we up to the challenge? When we can answer 'yes,' we will have built a New Jerusalem. Patrick Doyle, Carleton Place, ON.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK

Each day all who suffer from illness, especially Sandra Terrance, Thomas Lazore, Wally Jacobs, Michael Taylor, Christian Jock, Carmen Tarbell, Yvonne Miller and Debbie Bero

Lord, you invite all who are burdened to come to You. Allow your healing hand to heal me. Touch my soul with Your compassion for others. Touch my heart with Your courage and infinite love for all. Touch my mind with Your wisdom, that my mouth may always proclaim Your praise. Teach me to reach out to You in my need, and help me to lead others to You by my example. Most loving Heart of Jesus, bring me health in body and spirit that I may serve You with all my strength. Touch gently this life which You have created, now and forever. Amen. . Eternal rest grant unto to our recently deceased Frank Cook, Darlene Oakes and Ronnie Boots
