 Prayer for the safe return of the young women abducted in Northern Nigeria Human trafficking is ugly. The terror, degradation and destruction of the human spirit and body are real. A secondary school for girls, in Northern Nigeria, was attacked and almost 300 young girls were abducted. They are destined to be sold in the sex slave trade. While a small group of the girls were able to escape, two have died of snake bites, the others are missing and being held by a group of terrorists. Let us put our belief in the power of prayer into action and join together as a Diocesan family to pray for the safe return of these young girls. You are invited to use the prayer to St. Josephine Bakita. Every day until the safe return of these young girls let us pray: St. Josephine Bakita, you were sold into slavery as a child and endured untold hardship and suffering. Once liberated from your physical enslavement, you found true redemption in your encounter with Christ and his Church. O St. Bakita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery. Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. Those whom man enslaves let God set free. Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith. Help all survivors find healing from their wounds. We ask for your prayers and intercessions for those enslaved among us. Amen.

Reflection

A concern brought Rose to the parish social justice committee. Problems had forced the local soup kitchen to cut back. This meant two fewer days of hot meals a week for the hungry. She asked a simple question: Could our parish hall and kitchen be used to fill the gap? Where would we find the needed volunteers? Who would provide the food and cover unforeseen costs? Finally, the parish agreed to take on a weekend soup kitchen as a temporary Lenten project. Some 20 years – and many thousands of meals – later, this ecumenical effort continues to answer a basic community need. But what if the concern brought to that committee had been on human trafficking in a far-off land or an industrial project threatening the environment and traditional lifestyles? How would we have responded? Luke tells us in Acts how the early Christian community reacted to a social concern that crossed ethnic and class lines. They took on the task of caring for widows while not neglecting the word of God, and “the number of the disciples increased greatly.” As individuals, we cannot respond to every issue. However, as Peter says in the second reading “Like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house.” All of us have our own roles to play in building a Christian community, which knows Jesus is the way, and the truth and the life.”

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Matthew 26:26-29 (ESV)

Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it, broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." And He took a cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Loving Creator God, as we celebrate First Communion Day with our little children, help us to better understand and appreciate the gift of your Son, Jesus Christ and His gift of the Holy Eucharist. Enable us to come to a greater appreciation of who You are and what this gift is meant to accomplish in our lives. We were baptized to share your life in the name of Christ. May we live true to the waters of our baptism and true to the gift of your Body and Blood. May we truly be the people you have made your own. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, who lives with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

As we receive Your Precious Body and Blood in Holy Communion today, we ask Your blessing on all who are unable to be with us at Holy Mass because they are homebound, or hospitalized due to illness or old age, especially Anne Terrance, Sandra Terrance, Joyce Laffin, Laurie Conners, Debbie Carney, Theresa Mitchell, William Francis, Jeremy Francis, Eva Seymour, Betty Swamp, Bertha Horne, and Nostha Delormier, Grant them healing, consolation and peace, dear Lord. Amen.
