THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

HOW MAJESTIC IS YOUR NAME IN ALL THE EARTH. West Texas is a privileged area for astronomers. In some places it is so dark that the night is called boca del lobo, or the wolf's mouth. When stargazers ponder the dark night, a feeling of wonder and awe floods their heart, "Is this God?" Today we celebrate Trinity Sunday. As Christians, we contemplate the mystery – the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – and ask ourselves what significance this might have for us today. We baptize and bless in the name of the Trinity. Jesus commissions all in the name of the divine Three. We are "made in the image" of the Trinity! The Trinity means that God is a Community. This is the "truth" that Jesus speaks of in the Gospel. The three divine Persons are in relationship with each other, in a profound spirit of trust and outpouring of love. The Trinity is self-giving surrender and shared love with all creation. Love is a bonding-agent. "One God and three Persons" is a oneness with diversity. As Christians we are called to reflect the Trinity-as-Community in our daily activities and relationships. An authentic community, nurtured by the eucharist, requires trust, sacrifice, dialogue, participation, listening, silence. It is a challenge to live community within our families, workplace, school and among nations. But every dark night has its "Star of Wonder." We need only follow it. Robert Dueweke, El Paso, TX.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK

Grant peace and prayers to those suffering in our parish and community, especially Debbie Bero, Sandra Terrance, Yvonne Miller, Evelyn Bush, Carmen Tarbell, Wally Jacobs, John Bigtree, Robbie Lazore and Christian Jock and Danielle Terrance. May Our Blessed Mother May strengthen them in the love of her Son, Jesus. Amen.
