Ascension of the Lord

Matthew's telling of the Ascension story is both ironic and comforting. The Twelve apostles are sent out to inspire, to teach and to lead in the renewal of the twelve tribes of Israel. After the tragedy of Judas' betrayal and suicide, there are only eleven of them. Now known as disciples (learners) rather than apostles (messengers), they continue to learn what discipleship means. Jesus does not call them to the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, the seat of Israel's tradition and hope. Instead, he summons them to an anonymous mountain in Galilee. Seeing him, they worship, but doubt. Worship and doubt don't logically go together, but even for us today they coexist as elements of a genuine personal faith. When Jesus approaches, he does not try to argue away their doubts. Instead, he offers a stirring invitation to include the whole world in their circle of worship and doubt, to make disciples of all nations. The eleven disciples' struggles would become their greatest asset. Because they knew for themselves both worship and doubt, they, like so many after them, were credible witnesses to Jesus' mysterious presence—even to the end of the age.

Thank you to everyone who came and participated. We look forward to seeing you next year!

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month--

- That the unemployed may receive support and find the work they need to live in dignity:
- That Europe may rediscover its Christian roots through the witness of believers.

<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, help all those who are suffering from illness, depression, sorrow, and loss.
In your name, we beg the grace of healing for Jeremy Francis, Nosta Delormier, Sandra Terrance, Anne Terrance, Laurie Connors, Theresa Mitchell, Debbie Carney, Joyce Laffin, and all in our nursing homes, hospitals, and VA facilities.

^^

We beg the grace of eternal rest for Philip "Sonny" Boots, and for all recently deceased who have had Graveside Prayer Services this month -- Solomon Cook, Sally Ann Cook, Edward Lazore, Wally Jacobs, and Alec Cooke.. Compassionate Heart of Jesus, comfort their families!
