	On Saturday, 21st June 2014, the Bishop of Valleyfield, Most Rev. Noel Simard will be making his 2014 pastoral visit to our mission and thereby confirming our candidates. Being a pastoral visit, we want to give the Bishop quality time with our candidates and to visit all the different parts of our mission territory: Cornwall Island, Snye, Hogansburg, and St. Regis, and to have time with the elders and the sick. His arrival in the morning at about 11 am will immediately be followed by a visit to Tsiionkwanonhso:te giving them the Sacrament of Anointing of the sick and Holy Communion. Then in the afternoon, he will visit Snye home lakhihsotha for the same purpose, then meet briefly with the Parish Council and Finance Committee at the Kateri Hall, before the Mass of the Confirmation in the Church at 4:30 pm. After the mass, there will be a social time and dinner with the Bishop, with the confirmation candidates and families, and all our parishioners at the Kateri Hall. Keep the success of this program in your prayerful thoughts, and keep our confirmation candidates also in your prayers. Fr. Anthonv

PENTECOST SUNDAY

In L'Arche, where I live, people who have intellectual disabilities are a constant reminder of the values of the heart, as Jean Vanier has often pointed out. Today's Gospel brings strongly to mind a moment years ago that permanently changed our community. Father Henri Nouwen was celebrating Mass. The Gospel we hear today was being read. As we stood in a circle, Ellen, who is Jewish but likes to pray at Mass, suddenly interjected, "I am a Jew". Her statement was simple and pain-filled. There was silence for a moment. We knew that Jesus and his disciples Jews, and that the people the disciples feared in the Gospel were the authorities, not Jews in general. Ellen's comment initiated an enriching interfaith journey of learning and friendship that continues for us today. Indeed, the Church urges that we grow in understanding our Jewish roots. As we celebrate Pentecost, let us recall that among the many gifts of the Holy Spirit are insight, wisdom, and courage. Father Henri and others received the insight that came from the comment of a person whom many in society would put aside. Ellen herself was listening to the impulse of the Spirit when she spoke. As Paul says to the Corinthians, we each are given gifts of the Spirit for the common good. Let us give thanks and choose to contribute our gifts and receive the gifts of others.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY	Announcements/Notices
Prayer to the Holy Spirit Breathe into me Holy Spirit, that all my thoughts may be holy. Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy. Strengthen me, Holy Spirit that I may defend all that is holy. Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy. Spirit of wisdom and understanding, enlighten our minds to perceive the mysteries of the universe in relation to eternity. Spirit of right judgment and courage, guide us and make us firm in our baptismal decision to follow Jesus' way of love. Spirit of knowledge and reverence, help us to see the lasting value of justice and mercy in our everyday dealings with one another. May we respect life as we work to solve problems of family and nation, economy and ecology. Spirit of God, spark our faith, hope and love into new action each day. Fill our lives with wonder and awe in your presence, which penetrates all creation. Amen. COME HOLY SPIRIT, fill the hearts of Your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Your love. Send forth Your spirit, and they shall be created and You shall renew the face of the earth. Strengthen, heal, and console all those who are suffering at home, in our nursing homes or in the hospital, especially Clyde Cree, Hawi Oakes, Theresa Mitchell, Laurie Connors, Sandra Terrance, Anne Terrance, Nosta Delormier, Jeremy Francis, William Francis and Debbie Carney.	Get ready for the 2014 Fortnight 4 Freedom. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has chosen Service of the Poor as the theme for 2014. Let us put our collective faith, prayers, strength and commitment to the dignity and the sanctity of human life to work. Together we can make a difference. Diocese of Ogdensburg 2014 Confirmation Date is scheduled for June 21st With the Most Reverend Bishop Noel Simard of Valleyfield QC. Reminder to all Confirmation candidates that the next class session at Kateri Hall is June 8th Pentecost Sunday. Beginning at 11:30 am. Please be on time and attendance is important. Father's Day June 15th Blessing of the river and Blessing of the cars. Monday June 16th Choir practice 6:30pm sharp in the church. "Whoever is generous will be blessed because He shares his food with the poor." (Proverbs 22:9) Anyone wanting to volunteer or if you have a donation for the food bank but can't get here, call us here at the rectory.
