THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

I WILL FOLLOW YOU, LORD. In today's Gospel, the fact that Samaritan townspeople were not welcoming Jesus on his way to Jerusalem prompted James and John to make a wild suggestion: they would command fire from heaven to come down and consume them! Perhaps the two of them were still mulling over their earlier experience with Jesus on the Mount of Transfiguration, when they had overheard Jesus in conversation with Moses and Elijah. Both of these great figures had amazing fire stories in their repertoire. In 1 Kings 18 Elijah challenged 450 prophets of Baal to a contest. They would each choose a bull and prepared a sacrifice, but would not light the fire. The prophets of Baal danced around their sacrifice and prayed for hours, but there was not even a spark from the sky to ignite their sacrifice. When Elijah took his turn, he drenched his altar with water to make combustion virtually impossible, then calmly gathered the people around him and offered a solemn prayer to the God of his ancestors. There erupted a blaze that consumed even the stones. When prompted by his disciples, Jesus emphatically rejected any such spectacular plan for himself. The fire for his sacrifice was already burning in the determination of his heart...spectacular in a whole new way. Corbin Eddy Hancock, MI.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

We pray this week for healing for Ida Thomas, Bertha Horn, Sandra Terrance, Yvonne Miller, Wally Jacobs, and Helen Lazore. May the Sacred Heart of Jesus strengthen and console them and all others in St. Regis Parish who are suffering at this time.

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion, inexhaustible, look kindly upon us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence, submit ourselves to Your holy will which is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.
