GOD BLESS OUR GRADUATES!

Loving God, we pray for all young people. Guide, inspire, and strengthen them on their life's journey. May their hearts burn with a desire to love You. Give them open and willing hearts to be the disciples of today. Lead them to be courageous witnesses of the Gospel message, radiating Your light and peace to our world. Touch them with Your goodness so that they will reach out to their brothers and sisters with respect and compassion. May they be instruments of hope to all.

Faithful God, we ask You to be their constant companion. Amen.

ST. MARIA GORETTI - JULY 6- PATRON OF GIRLS AND OF THOSE WHO SEEK FORGIVENESS

Maria Goretti was only twelve years old in 1902 when she died at the hands of Alessandro Sereneilli who was attempting to rape her. "Don't do it. It is a sin!" she had begged her attacker. He stabbed her fourteen times. She survived twenty more hours. The priest who was called to give Maria the Last Rites urged her to forgive her attacker. Maria did, "Yes, I forgive him for the love of Jesus, and I want him to come with me to paradise."

Alessandro was sent to prison for thirty years. One night Maria, clad in white and carrying a lily in her hand, came to him in a dream. Later he called for a priest, confessed his sins and received God's merciful forgiveness. Alessandro became a model prisoner and got out of prison four years before his time was up. Then he went to visit Maria's mother Assunta to obtain her forgiveness. He spent the rest of his life as a Franciscan lay brother, working in the garden of the Capuchin monastery.

Alessandro testified at the Beatification of Maria Goretti, "I gave myself over to brutal passion. She is a saint. Hers is a true martyrdom." Maria's mother was present at St. Peter's on the day of her daughter's canonization, June 24, 1950.

From September to November of 2016, the major relics of St. Maria Goretti will make a pilgrimage to the United States. Named the "Pilgrimage of Mercy," it is the first time that her body travels to the USA.

While St. Maria is universally known as the Patroness of Purity, her greatest virtue was her unyielding forgiveness of her attacker even in the midst of horrendous physical suffering, a forgiveness that would completely convert him and set him on a path to personal holiness.

Jubilee Year of Mercy – July 3 – Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Last Sunday, Jesus rebuked James and John for wanting to "call down fire from heaven" (Luke 9:54-55) on an unwelcoming town. As he sends forth disciples today, Jesus again forbids retaliation against non-receptive listeners (10:10-11), showing us how to be Jesus' "missionaries of mercy" this Jubilee Year of Mercy. Like the first disciples, we are sent not to proclaim ourselves but Jesus. As Jesus sent them in pairs, so are we also to work together in the community of the Church. We often describe the Church as Isaiah describes Jerusalem in today's first reading, our comforting, nurturing Mother (Isaiah 66:13). So, going forth gently, like lambs among wolves (Luke 10:3), we share comforting peace, nurturing food and drink (Luke's image for Eucharist), and Jesus' healing promise of unfailing, unconditional mercy (10:5, 7, 9). Thus Jesus bids us proclaim the kingdom of God by showing what God's kingdom looks like in action. "Go, preach the Gospel," Pope Francis' saintly namesake of Assisi is said to have instructed his first friars, "and when necessary, use words!"
