SANCTUARY LAMP

HONORING YOUR LOVED ONE.
Our memorial candles burn 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, as a constant prayer vigil for your loved one. Therefore, you are invited to light a Memorial Candle to honor loved ones who are deceased, for the sick, for troubled families or person, for healing and recognition. Please call Shari at 613-575-2753 to reserve one of these memorial candles.

This week the candles are lit in prayer for our recently deceased members of our community,
Elizabeth Hopps and Richard 'Dick' Peters.

Please remember them and their families in your prayers.

THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

THE HARVEST IS PLENTIFUL BUT THE LABOURERS ARE FEW. The Gospel today repeats the phrase, "the kingdom of God has come near." This repetition in the reading seems to emphasize that God's kingdom is at the heart of the proclamation of the Gospel. These early followers of Christ are sent out to share the fact that God is close at hand. God's very love and mercy are made present in their works as the sick are healed, evil is banished and peace is manifest. Even in those places where the message is rejected, Jesus tells his followers to say that God's kingdom is near. In other words, the kingdom of God is not something that ultimately can be rejected. Jesus assures his followers that they have been given power over the wolves, snakes and scorpions that they encounter and he promises that nothing will harm them. God's healing love, mercy and justice always prevail, even over what appears to be rejection of this powerful, life-changing message. We, today's followers of Christ, are sent out in the same way to spread the good news of God's healing presence and forgiving love. We, too, are called to remember that even though God's word is not always heard or accepted, the experience of God's kingdom prevails. The eucharist is our constant reminder of this enduring love and saving power. The kingdom of God is indeed near; let us rejoice and give thanks. Beth McIsaac Bruce, Halifax, NS

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

As we celebrate Canada Day and 4th of July this week, we offer our prayers for all Veterans living and deceased who have sacrificed to make our nations free from oppression. We ask God to watch over the men and women now serving in the Military Forces, as well as their families. This week we remember especially in prayer all of our Mohawk veterans who are ill or disabled. May God bless them and those who care for them.

We continue to pray for our sick parishioners. Wally Jacobs, Ida Thomas, Yvonne Miller, Helen Lazore, Debbie Bero, Sandra Terrance, Mose MacDonald and Danielle Terrance, and those unknown to us who need healing and comfort.
