THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

BLESSED ARE THE POOR IN SPIRIT. Throughout time people have struggled with greed and hoarding. Plato said that the one with many needs is poor; the one with few needs is rich. Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn cautioned that we prove our greatness not by the number of our possessions but by the grandeur of our actions. In today's Gospel, Jesus likewise admonishes us against being greedy. Each of us, rich or poor, can be infected by greed. We are greedy when we pursue a "more-is-better" lifestyle and hold a "must-have-it-now" mentality. We are greedy when we accumulate more than we need and hoard our time, talent and treasure. It is not how much we have, but our attitude toward what we have. We are in danger if we confuse possessions with true human worth, or if we confuse security with happiness. It is not what we carry in our hearts. Our true worth cannot be measured in dollars, stock certificates or insurance policies, rather in the way we live our lives as sons and daughters of the generous, open-handed Giver of Life. May our eucharist lead us to differentiate between our needs and our wants and to share our lives more openly with others. Then we will be rich in all that really counts. Wanda Conway, Winnipeg, MB.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

At every moment of our existence, you are present to us, Father, in gentle compassion. Help us to be present to one another, so that our presence may be a strength that heals the wounds of time and gives hope that is for all persons, through Jesus, Our Lord and Brother.

May your healing presence be with Mae Thompson, Ida Thomas, Yvonne Miller, Wally Jacobs, Gloria Herne and Sandra Terrance, and all of our parishioners who may be suffering at this time.
