THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

ENDURE TRIALS FOR THE SAKE OF DISCIPLINE. How many will be saved and will I be among them? The future can be uncertain; all of us look for a helping hand at times. In government, business, even the Church, we sometimes depend on who we know to gain entry so that coveted position, to a place in a sought-after school or a good summer job, to a circle of people. In today's world with its poverty, crises of leadership, environmental destruction, financial instability, violence, war and intolerance, not all voices are welcomed and listened to, not all find a place at the table. Are those with less or even nothing any less worthy? Jesus would say not. We have a responsibility towards each other. When it comes to a place at the table, to eating with Jesus in the kingdom, today's Gospel speaks of the narrow door, the not-so-easy way in. It might be the way of sharing so that there is enough food, water and shelter for all. It might be to see myself, my actions and my country's policies having an impact on the person beside me or even on another continent. The people in today's Gospel arrived late, after the doors had been closed for the night. We are encouraged to be ready and to be on time. It is our actions rather than who we know that will save us. Carmen Diston, Rome, Italy

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

We continue to lift up to God our beloved parishioners who are suffering, especially Yvonne Miller, Sandra Terrance, Rhea Anderson, Wally Jacobs, Josephine Peters Lazore, Evelyn Mitchell, Mae Thompson, and those in our nursing homes and hospitals.

If you are aware of someone who is homebound due to advanced age or illness, please contact Sister Mary Christine so she can visit and bring Jesus in Holy Communion to all who are suffering.

WE ARE INVITED TO THE SOLEMN MASS FOR THE YEAR OF FAITH AT THE OLYMPIC ARENA IN LAKE PLACID ON SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2013 AT 2:30 P.M.

The personal representative of Pope Francis, Archbishop Carlo Vigano, Apostolic Nuncio, will be the principal celebrant at the Diocesan Solemn Mass for the Year of Faith at the Olympic Arena in Lake Placid on Sunday, September 29, at 2:30 P.M.

Bishop Terry LaValley has invited all parishioners of St. Regis Church to join the thousands of Catholics from all parishes of the Diocese of Ogdensburg in this great celebration of our Catholic Faith. As the Mohawk Faithful in traditional dress honored St. Kateri Tekakwitha in Rome last October, as well as at the November Mass beginning the Year of Faith last fall in Ogdensburg, we are asked to participate in this great liturgical event at Lake Placid. There will be a 250-voice choir made up of parishioners from the various parishes of the diocese. The Adirondack foliage will be at the peak of splendor. Please make your plans now to share in this wonderful celebration of Faith in Jesus Christ, Our Savior.
