FEAST OF ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL, SEPTEMBER 29

Holy Scripture describes St. Michael as the leader of the forces of Heaven in their triumph over Satan and the powers of Hell. The name "MICHAEL" signifies "WHO IS LIKE TO GOD" and was the war cry of the good angels who fought against Satan. Michael is the Prince of the Seraphim and patron of police, paratroopers, mariners, and grocers.

In our day when the evil spirits roam throughout the world causing hatred, wars, violence, infidelity, and every kind of evil, let us pray daily the Prayer to St. Michael composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do you, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, drive into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam through the world seeking the ruin and destruction of souls. We ask this in the name of Christ our Lord. Amen.

FEAST OF OUR GUARDIAN ANGEL - OCTOBER 2

Angel of God, my guardian dear
To Whom His love commits me here
Ever this day be at my side
To light and guard, To rule and guide. Amen

A Mother's Prayer to the Guardian Angels of Her Children

I humbly salute you, O you faithful, heavenly Friends of my children! I give you heartfelt thanks for all the love and goodness you show them. Continue to watch over them. Provide for all their needs of body and soul. Pray, likewise, for me, for my husband, and my whole family, that we may all one day rejoice in your blessed company. Amen.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

HOW MANY TIMES have people been stereotyped and even excluded when we have heard or thought, "but they are not one of us!" Today, we are presented with two instances in which the followers of Moses and Jesus fail to grasp that the Spirit of the Lord has no limits and is certainly not under their control. The apostles did not understand Jesus' inclusive love and outreach. While Moses recognized the Spirit, he understood that not everyone did: "Would that all the Lord's people were Prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit on them!" But we are born into a world in which the Spirit of God is already at work. Saint John Paul II affirmed that the Spirit of God is both God's presence and activity in the world. Jesus invites us all to live with reverence for a missionary God who moves and acts in ways unknown to us – and to do so with openness and respect for all creation. Our primary responsibility is to prayerfully discern God's presence and how to be faithful today to our baptismal commitment. Jesus gives us a fundamental guideline for both our discernment and discipleship: "Whoever is not against us is for us." Rev. Jack Lynch, SFM, Toronto, ON.

Prayer to the Holy Angels of Consolation

Holy Angels of God, comfort all who suffer from sickness, chemotherapy, dialysis, loneliness, depression, anxiety, and loss. We beg your consolation today for John Bigtree, Carl Bero, Debbie Bero, Laurie Connors, Clyde Cree, Francis Cree, Clover Dishaw, Bessie Mitchell, Mae Tarbell, Sandra Terrance, Alex Arquette, Larry Pyke, Antoine Delormier, Reginald Mitchell, and Marjorie Lazore.

May God grant eternal rest to our faithful parishioner, Henry J. Arquette, and consolation to his family. We commend also to your mercy, relatives of our parishioners -- Tommy Albany of Kahnawake and Howard Hough of Ottawa. May the angels lead them into Paradise!
