THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

REMEMBER JESUS CHRIST, RAISED FROM THE DEAD. Once, before we were married, my future wife fell seriously ill. We lived in an underdeveloped country then, during a vicious war. Medicines for civilians were hard to come by and medical experts were few. I would have given anything to have been able to help cure her and, when she recovered, my gratitude knew no bounds. I think of this time in my own life when I hear the story of the ten lepers who were healed by Jesus. I can understand how the depths of despair were fed by such a severe illness, leading this foreigner, a Samaritan, to call upon the mercy of an unknown itinerant teacher. When the chips are down, we become open to anything. The work of Jesus was to make known the design of God for humanity. To do this, he preached to the crowds. But as Luke's Gospel rightly tells us, Jesus also explained the love of God by his actions. Jesus lavished special attention upon the needs of the poor, especially those who were sick and had lost all hope. This love was even extended to Samaritans and 'foreigners.' We are asked to do the same if we desire to live lives of authentic holiness. Can the Christian communities of today truly preach (and authentically live) the Gospel if we pass by the lepers of today without responding to their needs? Joseph Gunn, Ottawa, ON.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

As we celebrate a A DAY OF THANKSGIVING,
we pray, TE DEUM!

You are God, we praise you!
 You are the Lord, we acclaim you!
 You are the Eternal Father, all creation worships you!
 To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
 Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise.
 Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.
 Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 The glorious company of apostles praise you.
 The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
 The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
 Throughout the world, Holy Church acclaims you:
 Father, of majesty unbounded.
 Your true and only Son, worthy of all worship
 and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.
 You, Christ, are the king of glory,
 Eternal Son of the Father.
 When you became man to set us free
 You did not disdain the Virgin's womb.
 You overcame the sting of death,
 and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
 You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
 We believe that you will come and be our judge.
 Come then, Lord, and help your people bought with the price of your own blood,
 and bring us with your saints
 to glory everlasting.

WE PRAY FOR ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING, especially Yvonne Miller, Gordon Caldwell, Sandra Terrance, Bertha Horne, Betty Swamp, Josephine Peters, Ted Mitchell, Eva Seymour, John LaRue, Felicia Jock and Wally Jacobs. May all the residents of our nursing homes experience the healing presence of Jesus, the Divine Physician.

May God grant eternal rest to the recently deceased Andy White, Wayne Ashe and Thomas Thompson, and consolation to their families. We pray for you.
