Niawenkowa	World Mission Sunday We all have significant relationships: a school friend, a family member, a spouse, or a member of a community or movement. We desire to love and be loved, and to live a meaningful life. Relationships can be exciting, affirming and fulfilling; they might also be unsettling or even scary as we explore what a particular relationship offers. Today's readings invite us to ponder God's relationship with us. As Cyrus, God chose you and me, called us each by name. God is here before and beside us, surrounding us with the gifts and grace to do God's work. In the readings of the last few Sunday's Jesus calls us to focus our minds, hearts and lives on him. We are urged to show respect, to use the gifts God has given us and to reach out to the poor without exclusion. In today's Gospel the chief priests and Pharisees are reluctant to examine themselves. As they try to entrap Jesus, they struggle with their loyalties and what a relationship with Jesus asks of them. These are often our struggles, too. Jesus invites us to be faithful in our living. We are called to follow him wholeheartedly and without reservation. In this Eucharist we give thanks for God's love made known to us in Jesus and pray to be strengthened in our lives by the outpouring of God's Spirit.

Financial Info

- Our fund for office equipment is gradually growing. As of today, we have donations as follows: Esther Jock (100 Can); Barney Rourke (100 US); Timmy Sunday (20 Can); Herbert and Felicia Jock (50 US). This makes it a total of 270 Dollars. We need, apart from a standard reliable photocopying machine with features of printing, scanning and e-mailing, a new desktop or laptop, a little printer, a filing cabinet for our finances and books. We are looking at about 1,500 dollars for these. Thank you and God replenish your pocket as you give.
- We received envelopes from the Diocese of Valleyfield for the Annual Fundraising Campaign, "Friends of the Bishop" 2014-2015. This is titled "I Support my Diocese". Each year, the bishop appeals for fund from spirited Catholics to help him in his own pastoral work in the diocese. We have only 20 envelopes, and I will give them out myself to those who wish to donate something. A charitable tax receipt will be issued for your donations.

Saint Paul of the Cross was a "walking Saint"

When he walked in public, crowds pressed in on him, hoping to get a piece of his habit as a relic, or to ask for a cure or a favor: Born in northern Italy in 1694, Paul experienced conversion at 15 and began a lifetime's devotion to prayer and austerity. After having had several visions, he determined that his vocation was to found an order dedicated to the Passion of our Lord. Officials declare the visions authentic and Paul withdrew to write a rule. He was joined by his brother, who remained with him for the rest of his life. By 1747, the Passionists had three houses and were preaching missions throughout Italy. At his death in 1775, Paul was establishing a congregation for Passionists nuns.

Saint Luke

Historical sources are unanimous in stating that the author of the Third Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles was a physician named Luke. He was undoubtedly a Gentile (that is non-Jewish) Christian and wrote for other Gentiles who did not have a background of the Old Testament in which to root their faith. His writings show him to be an educated man with considerable literary skill. He is a patron of the medical profession.
