	All Souls' Day November 2 Lest we forget In this season of remembering, the Church also honors those who have gone before us. We say their names aloud and record their names in memorial books. Sharing stories of their lives, we cherish the goodness of their human journey. We are grateful for the countless generations who have kept our faith alive, at times amidst great struggle and challenge. Our Spirits are often filled with memories of their integrity, strength, faithfulness and beauty. Yet it cannot be denied that their lives were also incomplete. Looking with the eyes of faith, we commend everyone and everything to the mercy and graciousness of the Lord. The promise of God's steadfast love keeps us from bitterness and despair. Through God's graciousness, we are changed "in the twinkling of an eye". All suffering and loss is "swallowed up in victory". We treasure this day of universal celebration and of quiet reflection. Lest we forget. We ponder who we are, why we are here, and where we are going. One day, we will be among those who are remembered. We honor all those who have gone before us. Lest we forget, we celebrate the dying and rising of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Blessed, nourished and strengthened, may we also be faithful. Brenda Merk Hildebrand Campbell River, BC

Prayer for All Souls' Day, November 2,

Jesus, our Savior, on this day we prayerfully remember all our loved ones who have died. Please give them comfort and hope if they are in Purgatory. May they be at peace, knowing that they will rest in God's arms eternally. Thank You for our memories of them and for the good times we shared. We ask you, please, through their intercession, to deepen our faith, strengthen our hope, and increase our love, that we, too, may someday stand before You, ready to enter Your Holy Kingdom. Amen

We pray for our sick St. Regis parishioners, who are ill, hospitalized, or homebound. May all the Saints intercede for healing graces for Danny Bero, Peggy Bero Cole, Debbie Bero, Laurie Connors, Christopher Jacobs, Abe Francis, Antoine Delormier, Veronica Cook, Lorraine George, Cecilia Cook, Catherine Cook, and Mary Jackson, Dewey Garrow, Betty Swamp, Sandra Terrance, Anne Terrance all those now undergoing dialysis, radiation, or chemotherapy.
