THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

BROTHERS AND SISTERS PRAY FOR US. One thing that both certain and uncertain is death. Its ambiguity creates a sense of anxiety and a desire to escape its grip at all costs. We fear death; we fear that we will be forgotten; we fear going to hell. We need to pause and reflect on Christian hope and "The Last Things." In then Gospel Jesus talks to those who do not believe in the resurrection. What will happen to us after we die? What will the resurrection be like? Will I see my family and loved ones? Jesus avoids the details. God is "God not of the dead, but of the living." Saint Paul says God is always faithful, directing our lives toward the love of God in Christ. God wants all to have life that is everlasting. Traditional Catholic Teaching claims that life after death is open to all people. God condemns no one; we condemn ourselves. Like the Maccabean brothers, we have the freedom to choose life or death. God wishes no one in hell. Belief in the resurrection of the dead involves a surrender of the of the total self into the loving arms of God. We prepare for death by the way we live. Daily moments of prayer are moments of surrender to the God who is always faithful. Our communal Prayer at the Eucharist is our "yes" to a future life of promise.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

PRAYER FOR VETERANS Take time especially November 11th to pray for all those who have generously served our country.

Lord, we ask for blessings on all those who have served our country in the armed forces. We ask for healing for the veterans who have been wounded, in body and soul, in conflicts around the globe. We pray especially for the young men and women, in the thousands, who are coming home from Iraq and Afghanistan with injured bodies and traumatized spirits. Bring solace to them, O Lord. May we pray for them when they cannot pray for themselves.

Echoing Pope John Paul II and Pope Francis, we beg for an end to wars and the dawning of a new era of peace. Have mercy on all living and deceased veterans from World War II, Korea, Vietnam, Iraq and Afghanistan. Bring peace to their hearts and peace to the regions they fought in. Bless all the soldiers who served in non-combatative posts. May their calling to service continue in their lives in many positive ways. Give us all the creative vision to see a world which, grown weary with fighting, moves to affirming he value and life of every human being and so moves beyond war. Hear our prayer, O Prince of Peace! Lord hear our Prayer!

A prayer for our faithful Departed

Loving God, we remember now in prayer our dearly departed relatives and friends. May they rest in peace with you and experience the eternal joy of heaven. Heal our grief, merciful Lord. Strengthen our hope that some day, we, too, will share in the Resurrection of Your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK AND ELDERLY AND THE LONELY

Lord Jesus, we beg You to lay Your healing hand on all the sick especially Baby Cassidy Oakes, Baby Kaya Francis, Wally Jacobs, Josephine Peters, Ted Mitchell, Eva Seymour, Viola Rourke, Sandra Terrance, Julia David, John LaRue, Bertha Horne, and Betty Swamp, Bernadine Herne, Henry Arquette, Anne Terrance, Quinton Jackson, Kenneth Richard Diabo, Donna Arquette and Theresa Mitchell and all the nursing homes, hospitals, and people home alone. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord.
