FALLEN LEAVES – WE PRAY FOR OUR BELOVED DEAD

Scripture reminds us that it is a good and noble thing to offer prayers on behalf of those who have gone before us with the sign of faith. Traditionally in the month of ALL SOULS DAY, November, the dead are lifted up in prayer.

As our beloved ones journeyed home to God, the St. Regis Parish Family was privileged to be with them and with their families in the time of sorrow, hopefully strengthening them in the hope of Christ's Resurrection.

Because death is not the end, nor does it break the bonds forged in life, we gather this weekend in a special Mass to remember our beloved deceased and to console their families.

*O God, who have set a limit to this present life,
so as to open up an entry into eternity,
we humbly beseech you, that by the grace of your mercy,
you may command the names of your servants, printed on these Fallen Leaves, to be inscribed in the Book of Life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. AMEN.*

REMEMBRANCE DAY -- NOVEMBER 11, 2016: LET US HONOR AND PRAY FOR OUR VETERANS

*All Powerful God, watch over all our dear ones who now serve or who have served in the Military.
Hold them safely in the palm of your hand.
Walk with them in your strength.
Bring comfort when they are troubled;
hope when they are weary.
Remind them of your love and ours.
Grant eternal rest to all deceased veterans who have given their life so that our nations may be free.
Merciful Lord, bring a lasting peace into our midst.
Heal our hearts and help all nations find ways to live in harmony so that blood is shed no more.
We ask this in the name of Christ Jesus, Prince of Peace.
Amen.*

Catholic Charities Campaign
Catholic Campaign for Human Development and Black and Indian Mission combined collection date: Nov.19, 2016. This year of Mercy reminds us that the basic call of Baptism is the call to community. Sharing our resources with our brothers and sisters through giving generously to this second collection is one way to celebrate the Thanksgiving season in a spirit of compassion and mercy. In our parish, we will have a second collection on Nov. 19 and 20th. Please give generously.

Jubilee Year of Mercy – November 13 – Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time.

As this Jubilee Year of Mercy comes to an end, Jesus' first disciples ask what every age seems to wonder about the end of the world: "Teacher, when will this happen? What sign will there be?" (Luke 21:7). But instead of what we'd like to know, Jesus tells us what we need to know. Don't be terrified by natural disasters, human violence, personal suffering. Because God's mercy abounds, all is grace. "It will lead to your giving testimony" (21:13). So Malachi promises "the sun of justice with its healing rays" (Malachi 3:20a); and Jesus describes how we should welcome the end: "Stand erect and raise your heads, because your redemption is at hand" (Gospel Acclamation, Luke 21:28). Rather than worrying about ourselves and the future's perils, both Jesus' gospel and Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy bid us go forth to spend our lives proclaiming God's promise of boundless mercy, but also translating God's mercy into living deeds of unfailing compassion and enduring comfort.

SPECIAL PRAYER INTENTION OF POPE FRANCIS FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

Dear God our Father, this November, we pray for all countries taking in refugees and other displaced persons. May they find support and grace for their efforts towards those in need. We also ask you to bless the collaboration between priests and laity working within parishes. Encourage and strengthen them in times of discouragement, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

WE PRAY FOR ALL WHO SUFFER

Lord, look with merciful love upon those who are suffering physically, emotionally, spiritually. Be close to those awaiting surgery, those in our hospitals, Veteran facilities, and nursing homes, as well as those living alone. We commend to you this week, April Benedict, Edward Terrance, Alex Arquette, Francis Cree, Hattie Cree, Barbara Kelly, Marie Casey, Virginia Jock, Clyde Cree, Orlo Ransom, Larry Pyke, Sheila Ransom, and Sandra Terrance.

We pray for our recently deceased community members, Rita Swamp and Sandra Terrance. We pray for consolation to their families. Amen.

In Gratitude

To all the organizers of the bus trips to visit the Holy Door in Quebec City. Niawenko:wa for your efforts to make these trips memorable and possible.
To all our Church cleaners for keeping our Church so clean. Niawenko:wa for your hard work.
To all the donations received from the second collection held on Oct. 8 and 9 to help disaster victims in Louisiana. The amount collected in gratitude was $494.61, and this was forwarded to Catholic Charities organization.

Fallen Leaves envelopes are now available at the entrance of the Church for you to list your loved ones. Donations will be accepted. Names will be read at weekend masses during Communion beginning Nov. 5th, and until all have been read.
