EVERY CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN SHOULD RECEIVE THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Confirmation classes in November will be on Wednesdays, November 11 and 18, 6:00 P.M. at St. Kateri Center. If you have not yet received this important sacrament, you are welcome at the classes.

The reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. By the Sacrament of Confirmation the baptized are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. (#1285 Catechism of the Catholic Church) To receive Confirmation one must be in the state of grace. One should receive the Sacrament of Penance in order to be cleansed for the gift of the Holy Spirit.

In the rite of Confirmation, the bishop invokes the outpouring of the Spirit in these words:

All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit you freed your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life. Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence. We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

The Sacrament of Confirmation is conferred through the anointing with chrism on the forehead, which is done by the laying on of the hand, and through the words, "Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit." (#1299 CCC)

If a Christian is in danger of death, any priest should give him Confirmation. Indeed, the Church desires that none of her children, even the youngest, should depart this world without having been perfected by the Holy Spirit with the gift of Christ's fullness. (#1314 CCC)

Reflection:

The surest and quickest way to attain perfection is to strive for purity of heart. Once the obstacles have been removed, God finds a clear path and does wonders both in and through the soul.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recent times have provided horrendous tragedies throughout the world: tsunamis, earthquakes, hurricanes, civil wars and other horrific events. Reading Daniel and then hear Jesus about the end times, we do get the strong feeling that history has been, and constantly will be, plagued by what the prophet calls "a time of anguish" and Jesus calls "a time of suffering." Most of these signs are caused by nature and, however fearful they are, none should be considered as a fateful or, even less so, as a punishment from God in anger. Nowadays we have been made sensitive to the fact that nature alone is not to blame. We too have our share of responsibility in the dramatic changes in nature and climate. We too are responsible or complicit in the mistrust between religions, races and countries that fuels conflicts. Nevertheless, both Daniel and Jesus emphasize not the dark side of human history but the bright side of God's saving plan. The end times lie in the hands of God who sends out the archangel Michael to protect his people when persecuted and, ultimately, Jesus, "the Son of Man coming in clouds" with great power and glory." When contemplating the future of humankind, Christians are never to yield to fatality or fear. For do we not wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour?
