THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

LET THE SEA ROAR. The true intent of this Sunday's scripture texts is encouragement for the faithful who worship God and try to live justly and righteously. Because it is not always easy to follow the Gospel, such good news is timely. The community Malachi addresses found it difficult to distinguish right from wrong anymore, since the faithless seemed to trump the faithful every time. It had become paramount for Malachi to insist that clear lines would eventually be drawn between evil and good, evildoers and the righteous could look forward to vindication, healing and the warmth of God's faithful love towards them. A different kind of encouragement is afforded to the Christian community at Thessalonika. Long-suffering in their care of members perfectly capable of looking after themselves but too busy prying into others' affairs to work, these faithful Christians are released from supporting those who gave the community a bad name by their behavior. Finally, as we wait for the Lord's return in glory, we can depend on the presence of God's Holy Spirit for assistance. With this assurance, we need not be concerned about exact dates and times, but only with fidelity and consistency in our discipleship.

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

Some Thoughts to ponder on what cancer can't do

A friend who lost his battle to cancer wrote this poem

Why must I bear this pain? I cannot tell
I only know my Lord does all things well
And so I trust in God, my All in all,
For He will bring me through, what ever befall
Cancer is so limited....
It cannot cripple love
It cannot shatter hope
It cannot corrode faith
It cannot eat away peace
It cannot destroy confidence
It cannot kill friendship
It cannot shut out memories
It cannot silence courage
It cannot invade the soul
It cannot reduce eternal life
It cannot quench the Spirit
It cannot lessen the power of Resurrection

There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. (1 Corinthians 15:44)
The physical body may be destroyed by disease: the spirit can remain triumphant. If an incurable disease has invaded your life, refuse to let it touch your spirit. Your body can be severely afflicted, you may have a great struggle. But if you keep trusting in God's love, your spirit will remain strong. Our greatest enemy is not disease, but despair.
We pray for all souls who need our prayers, especially the people of the Philippines who have suffered from the great typhoons. May the Lord grant eternal rest to those who have died, comfort the survivors, and a spirit of generosity to all helping to relieve their distress. We pray also for our parishioners in the hospitals and nursing homes or awaiting surgery. May God grant healing to Margaret Ransom, Ted Mitchell, Theresa Mitchell, Wally Jacobs, Sandra Terrance, Henry Arquette, Carl Smoke, and Cassidy Oakes and Kenneth Richard Diabo.
Loving God, we remember now in prayer our dearly departed relatives and friends. May they rest in peace with you and experience the eternal joy of heaven. Heal our grief, merciful Lord. Strengthen our hope that some day, we, too, will share in the Resurrection of Your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
