THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

TODAY YOU WILL BE WITH ME IN PARADISE. The feast of Christ the King seems at times to be out of place in democratic societies. If a King is understood to be one who rules with absolute power, this image runs counter to what we consider the ideal government. The readings of this Sunday use the image of a King, but with a twist. The king as presented in both 2 Samuel and Luke is far from the despot who rules with absolute power. In 2 Samuel we see the elders anointing David as king over Israel. David was chosen to be a king who would act as shepherd of the people to protect and care for the flock, assuring their life and safety. David's kingship was not about personal power but about guaranteeing that the people of Israel would live and proclaim the power of God. The Gospel scene that proclaims the kingship of Jesus is, surprisingly, the crucifixion. Only on the cross is Jesus proclaimed king. This is neither a scene of power for himself nor glory from a human perspective. It is in his utter helplessness that Jesus is recognized as king, and in this moment Jesus thinks not of himself but of another. This Sunday we celebrate a king whose life was centered on caring for others, offering life to others. In this, the image of Christ the King is one that every Christian is invited to imitate. Barbara Bozak, Windsor CT

PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK & ELDERLY

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

The Feast of Christ the King comes at the end of the Church's Liturgical Year. During 2013, this feast on November 24th brings to a close "Year of the Faith" that opened in October 2012. Let us pray often, "Lord increase my faith in You."

PRAYER FOR THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

"But how can they call on Him whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach? And how can people preach unless they are sent? (Romans 10: 13-15) Heavenly Father, pour forth your Holy Spirit to inspire me with these words from Holy Scripture. Stir in my soul, the desire to renew my faith and deepen my relationship with your Son our Lord Jesus Christ so that I might truly believe in and live the Good News. Open my heart to hear the Gospel and grant me the confidence to proclaim the Good News to others. Pour out your Spirit, so that I might be strengthened to go forth and witness to the Gospel in my everyday life through my words and actions. In moments of hesitation, remind me:

If not me, then who will proclaim the Gospel?
 If not now, then when will the Gospel be proclaimed?
 If not the truth of the Gospel, then what shall I proclaim?

God, our Father, I pray that through the Holy Spirit, I might hear the call of the New Evangelization to deepen my faith, grow in confidence to proclaim the Gospel and boldly witness to the saving grace of your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen
