This Sundays Reflection

Love is patient; love is kind. In today's Gospel, Jesus' confirmation of his mission in the synagogue causes great joy, for his fellow citizens expect much of him. Delight becomes rage, however, when he insists that his gifts are not exclusive --- not for the benefit of his local community alone. No longer a ble to embrace him, they exile him and even seek his death. On the surface, their anger seems excessive, their response rash. We realize, though, that his neighbours are ruled by their expectations. As long as Jesus' presence seems to hold promise for them, all is well. Yet, because their vision is narrow and they are not open to change, they are unable to welcome a prophet among them. This Gospel holds lessons for us. Like the Nazarenes we can sometimes become comfortable, complacent. Familiarity with the Gospel blinds us to its challenges. We welcome the Jesus who affirms and reassures us, yet find it hard to embrace the Christ who calls us beyond ourselves. Inspired by Jesus, may we find courage to venture beyond the familiar. May we be bold in our response to need, generous in our compassion, and open to possibility as we continue Jesus' mission in our own time place.

Prayers for Healing and for our Young People

We remember in prayer all who are suffering from sickness, especially Dickie Francis, Darlene Oakes, Wally Jacobs, Joseph Wood, Catherine Cook, Michael Taylor & Anne Terrance.

A SPECIAL REQUEST. All of those who bear the cross of suffering in union with Jesus need His strength, consolation, and healing that come to us through the Sacraments of His Church. There are many in St. Regis Parish who are elderly, homebound, crippled, or enduring chronic illness. Since they are no longer able to come to Church on Sundays, Jesus surely desires to come to them in their own homes. Read and ponder the Discourse of Jesus on the Bread of Life in Chapter 6 of the Gospel of St. John. In verse 51, Jesus says, 'I myself am the living bread come down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread he shall live forever; the bread I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.' What a wonderful gift Jesus has given to us! HIMSELF!

Love and prayers, Sister Mary Christine, SSJ
