This Sundays Reflection

NEITHER DO I CONDEMN YOU. (John 8). I remember a time when I was filled with a strong and righteous anger, which I carefully nourished by collecting stories that proved my point. I went off on a weekend retreat, hoping to get some rest. The first evening began with the simple statement: "We are all sinners." I still recall the strong feeling that rose up in me. "Not me, I am not the sinner.
 Do you know what those others are doing?" Then came the next statement: "If we are not sinners, we have no need of the Lord." I was silenced. My anger drained away, leaving me facing my own flaws, with the Lord by my side. In today's Gospel, we can feel the bloodthirsty righteous anger of the mob that brings the woman caught in adultery before Jesus. They have been looking for the opportunity to remove him, for his words and actions are causing so much trouble in their world. Finally, this is the moment. If he upholds the Law of Moses, they can stone the woman and his reputation as the one who helps the helpless will be destroyed. If he does not uphold the Law, they can have him killed. Jesus chooses another way. He holds up a mirror and invites each person to take a look at what they see. Marilyn Sweet, Windsor, NS.

PRAYER TO SAINT PATRICK ON HIS FEAST, MAR. 17.

Saint Patrick, Holy Apostle of Ireland, you did not hesitate to face danger and ridicule as you worked to bring the Word of God and the Christian faith to the people of Ireland. Please inspire in me the same faith, courage, perseverance, and wisdom that you showed in your ministry. Be with me and my loved ones in times of joy, as well as times of sorrow and hardship. Please watch over the souls of my departed loved ones, and intercede for me with the Lord as I pray for these special needs. (State your petitions). Holy Saint Patrick, help me to be a worthy person, a good Catholic, and to join you in eternal life in God's kingdom. AMEN.

A different view on what to give up for Lent

Give up complaining --- focus on gratitude.
 Give up pessimism --- become an optimist.
 Give up worry --- trust Divine Providence.
 Give up gloom --- enjoy the beauty that is all around you.
 Give up harsh judgments --- think kind thoughts.
 Give up discouragement --- be full of hope.
 Give up bitterness --- turn to forgiveness.
 Give up hatred --- return good for evil.
 Give up negativism --- be positive.
 Give up anger --- be more patient.
 Give up pettiness --- become nature.
 Give up jealousy --- pray for trust.
 Give up gossiping --- control your tongue.
 Give up sin --- turn to virtue.
 Give up giving up --- hang in there!

My prayer for you: Jesus I want to grow freely
 each day into the person you know I can be.
 Amen.
